

you can taste my wildness still

♩=60

Tom Ling

Verse 1

D G Em F C G Em D

You can taste my wild-ness still to - day my wolf-hound at my feet. I

5 C Am C C<sup>6</sup> D

al - ways_ knew the price I'd pay to ne - ver face de - feat.

Repeat Chorus last time

Chorus

D Bm Am C D

From fac - t'ry days to gyp - sy ways_ from Kent to Der - by_ town of_ all that goes and all that stays love ne - ver let me down.

10 G Em C Am D

Verse 2

D G Em F C G Em D

I said you'd ne-ver be_ my mas-ter you would ne-ver be my Lord. I said I'd_ not come af - ter you should take me at_ my word.

16 C Am C C<sup>6</sup> D

Verse 3

D G Em F C G Em D

But ba - bies on the rug there are times I miss that more than

22 C Am C C<sup>6</sup> D

all the_ chains that I re-fused for the ease of an o - pen door.

Verse 4

D G Em F C G Em D

Would you have me now in such a way or was that just your song? Be-tween

28 C Am C C<sup>6</sup> D

what you_ did and what you said where does truth be - long?